MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Possibility of Dissociating [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

1. On 27 August 1970, [REDACTED] informed me that he had agreed to accept a 12-24 month leave-of-absence from [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

2. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] He has previously served as consultant to the Center, and is serving as a consultant to the [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

3. There are several factors which I feel should be brought to the attention of Center and Agency management.

a) [REDACTED] has not been informed of [REDACTED] association with the Agency, since the [REDACTED]

b) [REDACTED] will direct a study group for [REDACTED] to determine U.S. policy for providing technical assistance to developing nations;

c) Presidential adviser Henry Kissinger appears to be responsible for the [REDACTED] interest in this field. It is not known at this time if the White House is aware of [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

d) [REDACTED] has a contractual agreement with the [REDACTED] that will permit [REDACTED] to continue his involvement with the Center's contract at a level-of-effort close to what it would have been had he chosen to remain at [REDACTED]

e) The nature of [REDACTED] new position is such that he may travel to several developing nations, not all of which necessarily agree with U.S. foreign policy. However, [REDACTED] noted that he intends at this time to keep foreign travel to an absolute minimum. Moreover, he realizes that so long as he maintains his current Agency clearances the Agency can refuse him permission for certain overseas travel, despite what his current employers wish.

4. There exists the remote possibility that [redacted] ties might be surfaced while he is involved with the [redacted] Since such a disclosure might prove to be an embarrassment to these organizations, I have this date brought [redacted] reassignment to the attention of: Chief, Security Branch, SS; Acting Chief, RED; Acting Chief, TSG and Acting Executive Director, NPIC. At my request, [redacted] Security Branch, this date, sought an initial reaction to [redacted] disclosure from Log Security. It was recommended that [redacted] be debriefed at an early date, but barring unforeseen circumstances, postpone the debriefing until additional [redacted] personnel working on the [redacted] are cleared for access to NPIC. It is requested that NPIC personnel refrain from contacting [redacted] after 11 September until an official Agency position is established.
